Just a heads up.

Della – you did Tan's mass spec .

Kate – you did Annie's mass spec.

Hi Dan,

The trial matter scheduled for 12/9/10 is related to the first batch, [REDACTED] We summonsed a few of you guys for this case, which explains why I was confused about Zhi (see below). However, our judges have been very flexible here and have allowed us to call "other" chemists who are qualified. I think that given your experience, you are very well qualified to testify to the others' work. Would you be willing to testify for them if necessary? I don't think we need to call everyone at trial. Also, there is a chance that this case will not be a trial. D has another more serious possession with intent in a school zone case with a mandatory jail sentence. This is just tracking that case. If he gets hooked on that one, this will be a plea. Anyhow, are you around on 12/9/10?

Thank you!

Susan Dolhun

Hi Susan. Can you tell me what lab numbers are associated with this case? We have 2 batches of samples for this defendant. The first batch is lab numbers [REDACTED] We also have a 2nd set of lab numbers [REDACTED] through [REDACTED] If you let me know which samples he's being charged with, I can let you know exactly who did what. Thanks!

Hi Zhi,

I believe Dan did the analysis. Did you conduct the testing under his supervision? Is he available? I am confused as I did not see your name on the drug certificate.

If you are assigned to the case, would you please send me a copy of your c.v.? Also, please send me all the dates in December when you are NOT available.

Thanks,

Susan Dolhun
